O. , 2006. LC Number: KF27 . I549143 2006z OCLC Number: (OCoLC)79827652 Subject: Faith-based human services -- Africa, Sub-Saharan. Excerpt: . . . 11 In Angola, since the end of the civil war in 2002, USAID has worked with faith-based organizations, both international and An-golan, to help the country rebuild, reintegrate and reconcile. And finally, in Sudan the role of churches and faith-based groups, not only as mediators but also as advocates, have played a pivotal role in the north-south conflict as well as in the ongoing Darfur conflict. Agencywide, in fiscal year 2005, USAID made 347 awards total-ing over 591 million to faith-based organizations. This amount is up from the 235 awards for over 521 million made in fiscal year 2004. It is important to note that in almost every case, the imple-menting organizations competed with other organizations for fund-ing. This is an increase of more than 13 percent from the prior year. In fiscal year 2005, specifically in the area of HIV AIDS, USAID has provided faith-based partners with over 23 million in assistance, with the vast majority of that aid going to sub-Saharan Africa. This total does not take into account the many subpartner-ships with FBOs that would add considerably to the overall amount. Despite this positive trend, we also see that the vast ma-jority of faith-based awards are made to a small number of groups. Therefore, it remains an important role for the Agency to continue its proactive efforts to bring on new partners to the Agency. Mr. Chairman, I sincerely appreciate this Committees con-tinuing interest in the use of...
