The Total Obliteration of Hell

By Frank Hayward

Chipmunkpublishing, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 127 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Description This book describes the author s (to date) 2 periods of psychotic illness, both of which occurred during the 1980 s and, whilst not originally intended as anything more than a personally satisfying way of expressing his vivid memories of these episodes, hopefully serves to evoke such illness in a manner to which sufferers/former sufferers can relate, whilst at the same time rendering this from the outside baffling state a little bit more intelligible to those who have not personally experienced it. (This tale is not in any way fictional, but some names have been changed.) About the Author The author was born and grew up in north London where, shortly after turning 25, he was first admitted to hospital with mental health problems. Two years later (in 1987) his illness was diagnosed as schizophrenia. He has he is glad to say now maintained fairly good health for over 15 years. Book Extract INTRODUCTION My present life, so I m told, and maybe it s my first? Began in Chase Farm Hospital, London, England. I have a...
